Lawmaker: Still A Case Against Governor
 Reported by: Patrick Fazio
 Wednesday, Dec 24, 2008 @03:25pm EST

The Illinois House Impeachment Committee's request to interview witnesses on wiretaps talking to Governor Rod Blagojevich is denied. Federal prosecutor Patrick Fitzgerald said Tuesday that sharing witnesses or evidence might compromise the criminal case against Blagojevich.

But committee member Roger Eddy of Crawford County says the corruption charges of trying to sell Barack Obama's U.S. Senate seat are enough.

"What we asked for was the possibility of subpoena power to bring some of these people in front of us. I think that the affidavit itself which is 76 pages long, which is a sworn statement that is attached to the criminal complaint, which has already been read into the record, in my opinion, contains enough information," says Rep. Eddy (R- Hutsonville), "You certainly do not have to be guilty of criminal behavior in order to be impeached."

The Illinois House Committee is on Christmas Break and will meet again on Monday.
