Ill. Rep: Gov. Should Be Impeached
Reported by: Patrick Fazio
Thursday, Dec 25, 2008 @05:00pm EST

The attorney for Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich still insists it's illegal for the Illinois House Committee to consider impeachment.

Blagojevich faces federal charges for an affidavit saying he was wiretapped trying to sell Barack Obama's U.S. Senate seat.

State Representative Roger Eddy of Crawford County says he and the Illinois House Committee have given Blagojevich due process.

"A fair attempt to tell your side of the story, we are giving that to the governor. He has not appeared which surprises me if he wants to talk to the world like he says he does. He can certainly appear in front of our committee. We invited him," says Rep. Eddy (R- Hutsonville), "I don't think there's any question based on what I've seen and heard from witnesses and that affidavit that this governor acted in a manner that warrants his removal from office."

The Illinois House Committee is on Christmas Break and will meet again on Monday.
